QUOTES PRESIDENT

Counsel for Cotton Conspirators Makes Unique Argument.

WANTS INDICTMENT QUAshed

Claim Is Made that There Is No Such Offense as Misconduct to Be Found in Any Act of Congress—Would Free Haas and Peckham on Technicality.

New York, Oct. 21.—The President's letter of acceptance of the nomination for the presidency a year ago was quoted today by the counsel in behalf of Moses Haas and Frederick H. Peckham, who were recently indicted by the Federal Grand Jury on a charge of conspiring with E. S. Holmes to defraud the Government by securing advance information of the cotton report.

The portion he quoted was: "There is no common law of the United States that can give the Government jurisdiction of an offense in the Federal Court."

The indictment alleged that Holmes was guilty of misconduct. The defense contended that no such offense as misconduct can be found in any act of Congress, which alone could give jurisdiction to the Federal Court. The prosecution declared it an offense against the common law of the District of Columbia. It was to controvert the latter association the quotation was made. He also contended that the Government was not actually defrauded out of anything. The decision on the motion to discharge Haas and Peckham was reserved.

RAILROADS ARE TIED UP

Russia in the Throes of a General Strike.

POLITICAL IN NATURE

No Trains Moving on Three Trunk Lines Running Out of Moscow.

MAY ORDER OUT THE TROOPS

Socialist Leaders Claim Present Demonstration Is but a Curtain Raiser to a Thorough and Complete Tie-up of All Railroads Early in January.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 21.—The strike of railroad employes assumed a serious aspect today when with the three great trunk lines out of Moscow tied up, and other Moscow roads embarrassed, the trains stopped running on the Nizhni Novgorod branch.

The Pan Russian Union of Railway Employes has issued a call for a general strike on all the railroads of Russia. The extent to which the call will be obeyed remains to be seen, as the Union is new and its strength an unknown quantity.

Up to midnight no additional strikes had been reported.

A meeting of the St. Petersburg railway men was still in session at a late hour tonight and had not reached a decision.

The demands of the men are purely political and are expected to last long enough to make a demonstration. The Socialist leaders claim it is a curtain raiser to a thorough and complete tie up of all the Russian railroad systems in January as an object lesson to the Government and Douma and that it will be called off as soon as it is seen that the strike machinery is working perfectly.

The Government is prepared in case the strike affects the Nicolai or Berlin-Vienna roads to order the mobilization of the railroad battalions of the army to keep up communication abroad.

Provisions of the New Election Law Causes Mix-up at Salem.

Salem, Oct. 21.—Owing to the neglect, it is alleged, of the City Council to notify the Recorder of certain provisions of the new election law, most of the candidates for the next Council are in danger of having to run as independents, nominated by petition.

The primaries will be held November 4, and the time for filing nominations expires tonight. None of the candidates have filed, or even circulated their petitions. As an alternative to having the candidates run as independents, it is suggested the Council may have power to extend the time for filing petitions, and it will be asked to do so Tuesday.

Berkeley, Cal., Oct. 21.—At a college bonfire tonight, President Benjamin Ide Wheeler of the University of California made a statement that rules of football would have to be modified or the game would have to go.

The President gave as his reasons that the "highly specialized training, costly equipment, unnecessary chances of serious injury and the small number of the student body to which it is confined.

He believes the rules should be so modified that many students now relegated to the bleachers would be able to participate in the game, which he says was originally designed for exercise and not solely for victory over a rival college.
